

Introducing our £1000 wedding photography package

We want to be part of your day, and we want you to have beautiful photography. So for 2012 we are delighted to announce we have restructured our prices and created a very attractive package that won't break the bank.

Our £1000 package gives you photography of the day, and your choice of 25 hand-finished prints. Unlike many photographers, we are happy to include a disk of all the high resolution images. Finally, you can choose a favourite image from which we will produce a wall-sized print as the perfect memory of a perfect day.

We have lots of other options, but we like to keep everything simple and transparent. If you would like to add something onto your package, here are the prices:

Reception options:

You may wish to have a signing frame at the reception. This comes complete with frame, ready for your guests to add their good wishes. All that remains is for you to choose an image from your day which we will print and insert into the frame which will then be glazed and supplied ready to hang.
